

Source: Jerald S. Ault, University of Miami

How to use the chart:

Fork length = from the tip of the snout to the fork in the tail

Dorsal girth = circumference around the fish just in front of the dorsal fin.

In the example on the chart: fork length = 83", dorsal girth = 42", weight = 210 pounds ($\pm 3\%$)